Don’t give away the KEYS to the kingdom.

A password is like a key, unlocking doors to warehouses of information, both personal and Brown’s, which you have been authorized to view.

You are responsible for its proper use, which includes not sharing it with others.

Read about the risks of— and alternatives to— sharing at www.brown.edu/passwordsharing